Broke His Hip Bone.

Saturday Myer Nickerson, who lives at Edginton, east of town, met with an accident which resulted in painful and serious injury. He was unloading hay at Whittaker's stable, when he fell from the top of the load to the ground. He was unable to rise, and an examination by a physician showed that he had broken one of his hip bones. He will be disabled for some time.

No Remedy for the Nuisance.

There was again much complaint Saturday during the labor parade of the nuisance of throwing circulars and other paper on the streets. In some places they were covered. Chief of Police McNichol investigated, and decided there was no law to stop the annoyance. Council ought to pass an ordinance covering the case. The paper litterers up the streets in an unsightly way, frightens horses and is generally a source of kicking by citizens.

Illinois is all Right.

Mr. Isaac Callender, of Galesburg, Ill., a prominent produce merchant, was in the city Saturday to buy apples. Mr. Callender says that Stevenson is considered a rebel out there, and that the labor people all over the state are down on him, as he is considered a tyrant by the workmen. He says Illinois will give Harrison as big a majority as Blaine had in '84—thirty-one or thirty-two thousand. The Republican members of the Farmers' Alliance will vote the Republican ticket this fall.

Bishop Thoburn at Bellairs.

Bishop J. M. Thoburn was paid a high compliment by the attendance at the First M. E. church at Bellairs yesterday. There were no services at any of the other English Protestant churches, and long before the hour fixed for the sermon by the bishop the large church was packed to the utmost capacity, and notwithstanding many had remained at home in the belief that the church would be crowded, a great number who were late were turned away. Bishop Thoburn is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Wilson, on Gravel Hill, during his stay there. Mrs. Wilson is his sister.

"The Lost Paradise."

There is, it is said, a vein of deep human interest in the story of "The Lost Paradise," which will be presented at the Opera House for two nights and a Saturday matinee beginning September 9, which commands the attention of all classes of theatre-goers. The lessons it teaches is that of the brotherhood of man, the dependence of the greater upon the least, however wide the difference may be between them in the social scale or in the extent of worldly possessions. The common factory hands, whose weekly pittance is barely sufficient to provide for the simplest necessities of life, are contrasted with the selfish and grasping employer whose luxurious state of existence their toil has made possible. Driven to desperation by their hard lot, the operatives demand an increase of wages, and the mill owner's refusal to grant their request results in a suspension of work. The interdependence of employer and employed is thus forcibly brought home to the mill owner and a concession to the demands of the operators is made.

Popular Lew Dockstader.

It is not necessary to say more in commendation of Lew Dockstader's Minstrels, who will be at the Opera House next Saturday night, than to mention the names of the leading members of the company. The comedians and entertainers are Lew Dockstader, Geo. Powers, Frank Dumont, Faulke and Semons, The Columbia Quartette, John C. Harrington, Blocksom and Burns and Wm. Rowe. There are also eight cultivated vocal soloists, a large, well-trained chorus and superb band and orchestra. Mr. Dockstader offers "Ward McAllister" as his new specialty and one of his latest and best songs entitled "Before and After" is one of the big hits in the first part. At the "Knickerbocker Club" the merry Lew selects one or more impersonations of the political leaders, including Harrison, Blaine, Hill, Cleveland, Depew, Reid and others, with original songs and speeches.

Pure and Wholesome Quality

Commends to public approval the California liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figa. It is pleasant to the taste and by acting gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels to cleanse the system effectually, it promotes the health and comfort of all who use it, and with millions it is the best and only remedy.

AN AUSPICIOUS OPENING

Of George M. Snook & Co.'s Palatial New Dry Goods Store.

In spite of the absorption of public interest in the celebration of Labor Day Saturday, the grand opening of George M. Snook & Co.'s fine new dry goods store on Maine and Market streets, just south of Eleventh, made a sensation such as no previous opening ever did. Those who inspected the new store saw at once that the firm's claim that they had the most extensive single floor dry goods store in the state was more than justified. In order to be ready for the grand opening at the time announced Mr. George M. Snook and the other members of the firm, Messrs. George Rentsch and Albert L. Wilkie, together with a corps of assistants, worked hard up to 3 o'clock Saturday morning.

At 7 a. m. both fronts were thrown open, and there was a rush all day. It required the services of an officer at each door to keep the throng in motion. To all the boys who came those wooden paddles with a ball tied to them so as to make a racket when shaken were given, and the boys noisily advertised the firm in all parts of town Saturday. To all the ladies neat and handsome purses were presented, and in each was a bright new coin, the amount varying from a nickel to a dollar. Naturally this plan made the opening the theme of conversation the whole day. About 1,000 wooden rattles and between 2,500 and 3,000 purses were given away, which is somewhat the way the people poured through the store.

The new quarters are 264 feet long, and are equipped with electric lights, Barr's cash system, and all sorts of accommodations for ladies and gentlemen, and the firm can still claim to be in the van.

On or about September 1 will open a full line of Fancy Millinery, including imported patterns and all the latest fall and winter styles. Thanking friends and patrons for past favors will be pleased to see them at No. 1131 Main street.

THE HUB—ONE-PRICE CLOTHIERS.

A GREAT RESPONSIBILITY

RESTS ON US AS LEADING

Boys' and Children's Outfitters!

AND WE REALIZE IT.

Your confidence is too free placed in our reliability for us to let up on our watchful care, even for an instant. In a few days all juvenile Wheeling will start to school and many are the fruits of our great harvest of dressing they will take along with them. The boys and children were never better dressed than they can be this season. There is a greater variety to select from, and every grade has had its STANDARD raised, NOT THE PRICE. You want tough qualities, but you want them in genteel patterns, gracefully cut and sewed together with the strength of iron.

WE ARE SUPPLYING JUST THAT SORT.

To the best of our knowledge, we haven't a doubtful wearer in all the thousands of Suits we've got to show. So sure are we of it that we make our guarantee a gratuity with every purchase. If you ever have cause for complaint, the return of your money pays the penalty PROMPTLY.

WE BEGIN WITH KILTS!

And cater for every size, every shape, every age of boy, until he graduates into our Men's Department. We have searched every fashion mart and brought its best, its CHOICEST NOVELTIES away with us. Almost every feature of our stock is confined to our EXCLUSIVE SHOWING, and we had to stand on our tip-toes to mark the qualities, THE PRICES ARE SO FAR BELOW THEM.

If you will take the trouble to make a few comparisons the light of superiority will shine still stronger on them.

Mail Orders Receive Prompt Attention.

STRONG,

Liberal, Enterprising!

Will the Hub
NEVER LET UP?

If you have a Suit, Trousers or Overcoat to buy you cannot find a better or safer place to get it than right here. Our Clothing line has a reputation for reliability and that much sought for custom-like appearance second to no other establishment in the United States. The appropriate and rich trimmings, the slightly and artistic finish and the exquisitely symmetrical shape of the garments we keep are pretty well known in this neck of the woods, and it is right and just that our reputation is so good and patronage so liberal, for is there a house anywhere that from the very start, a little over a year ago, has been more painstaking and enterprising? The intense earnestness which we have shown is of that vigorous sort which has commanded success by deserving it.

Is the cry of our competitors. We're putting more quality to small prices than we ever did before or they ever can. Our Great Bessemer Boys' Suit, strictly all wool, double seats and knees, sewed with best linen thread, wear like steel, at $5.00, has forced them in the background. They are too upish in their charges and too backward in their charges to strike the popular chord with the public.

We have Jersey Suits we are showing this season. An immense line of Children's Jersey Suits at prices that has already long since made this one of our most popular departments. Thousands of pairs of Knee Pants, made from remnants, at about half the price the same goods can be bought for in the regular way.
